9:15 – 9:30	Registration and Breakfast (Gathering Place)
9:30 – 10:20	Using Stakeholder Power Analysis to Affect Change (with Healthy Communities grantees) Stakeholders are the people who matter to a system. Stakeholder power analysis is a tool which helps understanding of how people affect policies and institutions, and how policies and institutions affect people. It is particularly useful in identifying the winners and losers and in highlighting the challenges that need to be faced to change behavior, develop capabilities and tackle inequalities.	Amanda Sears, Consultant Co-founder Environmental Strategy Center and the Alliance for a Clean and Healthy Maine Past President Maine Public Health Association
10:20 – 10:30	Questions and Answers
10:30 – 10:40	BREAK (Move to Carriage House)	NETWORKING
10:40 – 11:00	Welcome, Agenda Overview, Program Updates Budget and Collaborative Survey Tutorial Based on 6-month and annual reports, MeHAF staff will provide guidance on completing the budget reporting form, modification forms, and the collaborative surveys. Ideas will be shared on how to use the results of the collaborative survey. Sites where partners have completed the survey will receive a report summarizing the results.	Becky Hayes Boober, PhD MeHAF Senior Program Officer Holly Merrithew MeHAF Program Assistant
11:00 – 12:30	Learning Community Dialogue: What We've Learned Each grantee will describe its progress and three lessons they have learned so far. Themes from the community input process, strategies for engaging patients and caregivers and lower-income community members, methods used to translate community data into strategic planning, tips for keeping partners engaged, tools, and other ideas will be shared among the participants. The group will also identify policy issues that impact the A2QC work. Participants will share ideas for peer-learning workshops for the September 23 Learning Community Meeting.
